Categories

2.1 "Brokerage Network Advisors with sales before 2025"
Brokerage Network Advisors with sales of individual investment products offered by Beneva Inc. prior to 2025 and who also made sales in 2025.

2.2 "Brokerage Network Advisors with a first sale in 2025"
Brokerage Network Advisors with their first sale of individual investment products offered by Beneva Inc. in 2025.

2.3 "Brokerage Network Advisors without any sale in 2025''
Brokerage Network Advisors without any sale of individual investment products offered by Beneva Inc. in 2025.

Category	Calculating the target
2.1 "Brokerage Network Advisors with sales before 2025"	Based on 2025 gross sales, adjusted to a 2-month period, i.e., 16.67% of 2025 gross sales
2.2 "Brokerage Network Advisors with a first sale in 2025"	Based on 2025 gross sales, applying the same factor As in the Recognition Program[1] to annualize the sales. These sales are then scaled down to an equivalent 2-month period, representing 16.67% of the calculated amount. [1]Recognition Program factors: • Q1 (January to March): no adjustment • Q2 (April to June): apply a factor of *4/3 • Q3 (July to September): apply a factor of *2 • Q4 (October to December): apply a factor of *4
2.3 "Brokerage Network Advisors without any sale in 2025''	No sales targets to meet

Please note that all categories are subject to a minimum of $250 and a maximum of $10,000.

Here's an example:
An advisor who sold $1 million in 2025. His 2025 production would be scaled down to the duration of the contest (equivalent to 2 months), so his goal for the contest would be $166,667. (16.67% * $1 million)

Therefore, for every dollar sold above $166,667, they will receive a 0.25% bonus.

If, during the period, he sells $500,000, at the end he will receive: ($500,000 - $166,667) * 0.25% = $833.

Note that if this same advisor had sold $250,000 worth of products during the period, they would not have received any bonus because their excess sales would have been less than $100,000, which would prevent him from reaching the minimum threshold of $250.

All performance bonuses are taxable.

11.15 Investigation. If the participant is subject to an investigation by a regulatory body or Beneva, particularly for bad business practices or breach of the representation contract during the Contest Period or before/during the awarding of the bonus amount, Beneva reserves the right to withhold the awarding of the bonus amount until the end of said investigations or the reestablishment of the respect of the representation contract and to reevaluate the qualification for the bonus amount, provided it is possible to award the bonus amount later, and at Beneva's sole discretion.

A participant found guilty of serious bad business practices by a regulatory body will be disqualified from the campaign at Beneva's sole discretion and will not be awarded any bonus amount.
